

Dear Exhibitor,

We have received information that an ongoing fraud under the name of International Fairs Directory, formerly known as Expo Guide has posted a letter using our name and our trade show to solicit sales of our attendee distribution lists. Restaurants Canada and RC Show do not sell lists to attendees/exhibitors. If you receive any solicitations – they are NOT affiliated with us. Please delete and block addresses.

It has also come to our attention that a company named Global Travel Partners has been contacting companies also claiming to be partners of Restaurants Canada and claiming to be our representatives for all airline and hotel bookings. We have NOT collaborated with this company or any reservation company for our show. We deal directly with our preferred airlines and hotels listed on our website's TRAVEL page.

If you have been contacted by any of these companies by letter phone or email, please do not respond. The fraud company will threaten legal action, but these threats are idle and nobody has ever been successfully taken to court by these companies.

Do not share any details nor confirm any information with anyone outside of RC Show Management (domain ending with @restaurantscanada.org) and the official show suppliers listed on our website's EXHIBITOR SERVICES KIT.

We treat your information with the utmost confidence. If you are ever unsure whether communications have come from Restaurants Canada, please do not hesitate to contact us for verification.

Sincerely,

Show Management
